

Orca Card agreement:

The Orca Card is the property of Whatcom Community College.

It is the student's responsibility to properly care for the Orca Card. If the card is lost or stolen a $15 replacement fee will be charged. If the card is damaged, it will be replaced free of charge one time if the damaged card is presented to the office of student life and development. Additional replacements due to external damage will be charged at a rate of $15. You may not punch a hole in the Orca Card or alter it in any way as it will render the card useless.

If an error or discrepancy is discovered on the student's Orca Card account, the student must notify the office of student life and development immediately to resolve the issue. If the card is lost or stolen, the student must deactivate the card via the student's online account immediately.

By activating the Orca Card, the student agrees that he/she understands the intended uses of the card. He/she also understands the intended purpose of this card, its limitations and the restrictions upon which this card has been issued and agrees to ALL its terms and conditions. He/she also agrees to surrender the card to the College if the card is used in a way that is deceitful, illegal or for a purpose other than what was agreed to when the card was issued. The student also agrees to the terms and conditions available at whatcom.edu/orcacard or in the office of student life and development.
