A Note about Hybrid Classes

Hybrid classes are taught partly in the classroom and partly online. The online part starts on the first day of the quarter, even if the classroom part starts later in the week.

Logging into Your Class

1. Launch a web browser.
2. In the bar at the very top of Whatcom's home page, click Canvas.
3. On the login page, enter your student ID number as the username. If you're new, your password is the first eight letters of your last name (all lower case). If you've used Canvas at Whatcom before, your password stays the same as it was last time.
4. If your name is short, repeat it until you reach the right number of letters, e.g., doedoedo.
5. If you have more than one Canvas course, use the "Courses" tab on the left side of the screen to select the class you want to open.

If you have an online math class

6. Many of Whatcom's online math courses are taught using WAMAP software. When you open your Canvas course, you'll find instructions for logging into WAMAP. Make a note of the course ID and enrollment key your instructor has provided.
 7. Go to the WAMAP web site (www.wamap.org) and set up a user account.
 8. Enter the course ID and enrollment key, then click the name of your course.

Using a Mobile Device

Canvas and WAMAP courses aren't designed to be completed on a phone.

You can use a phone or tablet for some course activities, but beware: wi-fi signals can drop unexpectedly and disconnect you. And mobile devices sometimes create files that Canvas and WAMAP can't recognize. To be sure the assignments and quizzes you submit actually arrive, we strongly encourage you to use a wired computer for them. If you don't have one at home, you're welcome to use the Student Access Lab in Heiner Center.

Computer Skills You'll Need

Are you wondering if you have the computer skills you'll need for your online or hybrid course? Read over this checklist of the skills an online course typically requires.

- Using the keyboard and mouse
- Performing computer operations such as
 - Copying/pasting
 - Managing files and folders (creating, naming, saving in different formats, moving and deleting)
- Using the Internet
 - Connecting to the Internet with a web browser such as Firefox, Safari or Internet Explorer
 - Downloading an Internet browser (you'll want to download the most recent version of your browser)
 - Downloading and uploading files between your computer and a web site
 - Using a search engine such as Google or Bing to find information on web sites
 - Using the library's online databases

- Using email
 - Having a valid email address
 - Sending and receiving email messages
 - Attaching files to email messages
 - Opening email attachments
- Using applications
 - Using your Canvas or WAMAP "virtual classroom"
 - Using a word processing application such as Word
 - Using a spreadsheet application such as Excel
 - Using a presentation application such as PowerPoint

If you feel uncomfortable with any of these areas, please contact the Student Help Desk. We can help you get up to speed!
