GenCyber Camp Student Statement of Ethical Conduct

All students using the CIS department computer labs are responsible for knowledge of and adherence to the following:

Usage of computers in the CIS computer labs

- Students are expected to act in a responsible manner at all times in the labs and to follow the directions of their instructors.
- Internet access is provided for educational use only. Visiting websites (viewing or printing) of inappropriate nature or that may be considered offensive by other individuals is not considered acceptable use of this service in the CIS department.
- Sending/Posting harassing messages or repeatedly sending/posting unwanted messages (electronic or paper) to others is prohibited.
- You will not use network access to gain unauthorized access to any computer systems. You will not attempt to circumvent data protection schemes, violate software licensing agreements, or copyright laws.
- You will not connect any personal computer equipment to the college network, including computers in the CIS labs.
- CIS department computers will not be used for illegal or disruptive purposes. Examples of illegal or disruptive purposes include, but are not limited to:
 - Intentional harassment of other users
 - Intentional destruction of or damage to equipment, software, or data belonging to Whatcom Community College or other users
 - Intentional disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications
 - Intentional denial of services to users
- All existing laws (federal and state) and college regulations and policies apply, including not only those laws and regulations that are specific to computers and networks, but also those that may apply generally to personal conduct. GenCyber camp participants are also required to adhere to their school district policy. Any misconduct will be reported to your school and will be cause for dismissal from the camp.

Unless it is in the lab environment and the instructor has directed you to do so:

- You may not knowingly perform an act which will interfere with the normal operation of computers, terminals, peripherals, or networks. You may not knowingly copy, run, or install on any computer system or network or give to another user any program intended to damage or to place excessive load on a computer system or network. This includes but is not limited to viruses, Trojan horses, worms, and other malware.
- You will not attempt to intercept, analyze, record, or tamper with network data packets.

Students will conduct themselves in accordance with the WAC 132U-125-020, found in the Student Rights Responsibilities section of WCC's 2023-24 catalog. See: <https://www.whatcom.edu/academics/college-catalog-course-descriptions>. Failure to abide by these policies will result in automatic failure in the camp and disciplinary action. You must sign this policy to remain in the camp.

I have read the above and agree to comply with these policies.
